

Question 1

Across

3. Orange, green and purple are referred to as..... colours
10. A humans brain will always try to pair up annumber of objects in a composition
11. This element raises a tactile sensation within the viewer ?
12. All artists should create a before starting an artwork
13. Another name for colour is?
15. A flat 2 dimensional drawn object is a?
16. Name the design rule that helps you to create a focal point in an image

17. Name the specific type of line that delineates an object in a composition.
18. Which principle is created fromThe repetition of similar sized and shaped objects within a composition?
19. A rule of thirds grid contains how many blocks in it?
20. A finder can be used by an artist/ designer to create a good composition

Down

1. An artist can use white next to black in a composition and this is referred to as
2. When there are an uneven number of the same objects in a composition this is called the rule of
4. In order to create a header that stand out the designer must use the elements of contrast and?
5. The most obvious element usually seen in architecture / sculpture is....?
6. What term is used to describe three colours that are next to each other on the colour wheel?
7. In a black and white composition a designer can add an area of colour to create a point .
8. Which elements use creates an illusion of depth?
9. Red, blue and yellow are called colours?
14. What principle is created by a group of elements that worked together across an entire composition?