

Name: _____

Date: _____

Quiz #1

Across

2. A multidisciplinary field that attempts to understand the brain processes that underlie behavior
3. Mostly developed psychological principles of motivation
8. The belief that the mind and the body are separate
13. He argued that psychological research should seek the laws that govern observable behavior across species. Pioneered the behaviorist perspective
15. The approach to psychology that stresses the importance of behavioral and mental adaptiveness, assuming that mental capabilities evolved over many years
18. Founder of the school of functionalism and American philosopher
20. He was a Harvard philosophy professor, he had strong interests in literature and religion and he developed a unique perspective

21. A psychological model that emphasizes an individual's capacity for making choices
22. All knowledge is acquired from experiences
23. He founded a laboratory at Cornell University in 1892
24. A multidisciplinary field that attempts to understand the brain processes that underlie higher cognitive functions in humans Behaviorism A scientific approach that limits the study of psychology to measurable or observable behavior
25. The set of procedures used for gathering information in a way that minimizes error

Down

1. A school of psychology that states that psychological phenomena can be understood only when viewed as organized, structured wholes
4. One of the first experimental psychologists
5. Belief that the mind is a product of the brain
6. He coined the term "self-actualization"
7. He was responsible for the alternative to structuralism (Gestalts)

9. The scientific study of the behavior or individuals and their mental processes
10. The approach to identifying causes of behavior that focuses the brain and nervous system
11. The view that explains personality in terms of conscious and unconscious forces (desires /beliefs)
12. The perspective on psychology that stresses human thought and the processes of knowing, such as attending, thinking, remembering, expecting, solving problems
14. The perspective on mind and behavior that focuses on the examination of their functions in an organism's interactions with the environment
16. He emphasized that individuals have a natural tendency toward psychological growth and health
17. Critical figure in the evolution of psychology who founded the first laboratory devoted to experimental psychology
19. The belief that knowledge and habits are inborn