

Quiz- Chapter 1

Across

3. rapid losses occurring shortly before death
 6. people's answers to questions about a topic of interest
 10. people who study population trends
 11. way of organizing the biological, psychological, and sociocultural forces on human development
 12. one of the three fundamental effects examined in developmental research

13. the untrue assumption that chronological age is the main determinant of human characteristics and that one age is better than another
 14. one of four basic forces of development that includes all genetic and health-related factors
 15. an investigation in which the strength of association between variables is examined

Down

1. debate over the relative influence of genetics and the environment on development

2. behavior or outcomes measured in an experiment
 4. the degree to which an instrument measures what it is supposed to measure
 5. a period when individuals are not adolescents but are not yet fully adults
 7. any situation in which one cannot determine which of two or more effects is responsible for the behaviors being observed
 8. the study of aging from maturity through old age
 9. a group of people born at the same point in time or within a specific time span