

Name: _____

Date: _____

Quo Vadis and her Minions

Across

2. Roasted meat, especially when cooked on a revolving spit and shaved for sandwiches
 5. A kind of linen tape formerly used to make laces
 6. Trash, rubbish
 9. An antiquated oath expressing shock or surprise
 12. One who gives tips or solicits bets on a racehorse
 13. Any of various willows used for baskets
 14. One of France's four "mother sauces"

16. Having a strong disagreeable smell

18. A property (as bitterness) affecting the sense of taste
 19. An ancient Greek jar or vase with a large oval body and two handles
 20. Foretell the future using a crystal ball or reflective surface
 21. Made without milk, meat, or their derivatives

22. Of the tongue; lingual

Down

1. A person who talks at great length without making sense; nonsense

3. To understand profoundly and intuitively

4. Showing a lack of concern; indifferent

7. Enjoyment obtained from the troubles of others

8. A person who enjoys eating and often eats too much

10. A neighborhood theatre

11. To raise trivial and frivolous objection

15. Uttering false charges to harm another's reputation

17. To make mocking fun of