

RESEARCH1

Across

5. also called conceptual literature.

8. collectively called research literature.

9. a research that is guided specifically by a hypothesis.

10. is a method of acquiring knowledge based on the scientific method of inquiry.

Down

1. research uses interviews, questionnaires, and sampling to get a sense of behavior with intense precision.

2. deals with understanding human behavior in a natural setting.

3. it looks uncover a cause and effect relationship.

4. this research present a picture of the specific details of a situation, social setting or relationship.

6. test for the relationship between two variables.

7. educational research is a deliberate, planned and intentional activity.