

Name: _____

Date: _____

RRMC Operating Room Cleaning and Disinfecting

Across

4. Before opening the first case of the day damp dust all horizontal, vertical, or necessary surfaces using a regulatory agency approved hospital-grade disinfectant.

8. When using the zone cleaning method for terminal cleaning: Divide up the room into zones. Assign _____ staff members to clean and disinfect each zone.

11. Casters of mobile furniture are cleaned at: starts of day or ending of day

12. When cleaning cabinets, it is correct to clean from: top-to-bottom, or bottom-to-top?

Down

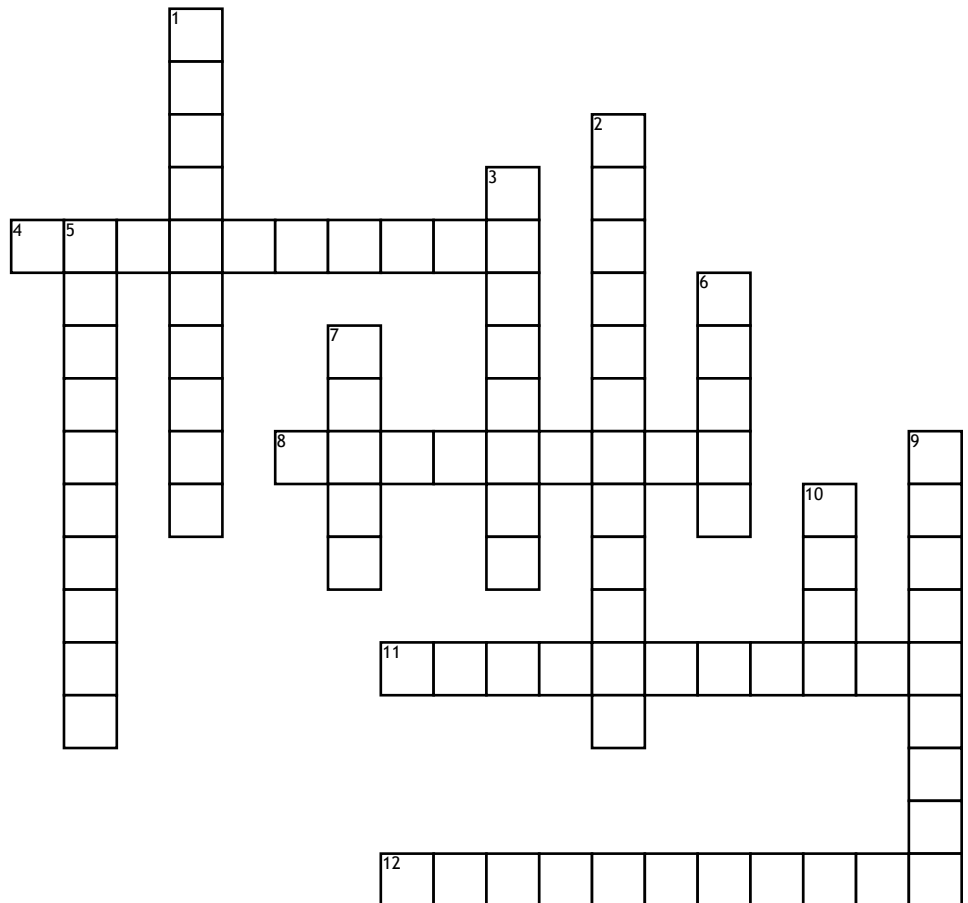

1. The correct disinfectant for Clostridium Dificile is a sporicidal, bactericidal, or viricidal disinfectant.

2. A terminal cleaning of the OR involves cleaning all surfaces of the OR using mechanical friction, a clean lint free cloth, and a regulatory agency approved hospital-grade _____.

3. Start at the cleanest or the dirtiest area when cleaning?

5. Ceilings in the OR are cleaned every 24hrs or on schedule

6. Some equipment, such as computer monitors, can be damaged and must be cleaned and disinfected per manufacturer's instructions and recommended detergent/disinfectant.
TRUTH/FALSE?

7. Equipment being brought into the OR should be damp dusted with a regulatory agency-approved hospital-grade disinfectant: prior (to) or after being brought into the OR

9. When mopping the OR, use a clean mop head for: every-room, second-room, third-room.

10. Rooms should be terminally cleaned every 24 hours even if they have not been _____.

