

RULES

Across

- 5. the adjustments and movements of speech organs involved in pronouncing a particular sound, taken as a whole
- 6. a combination of a chuckle and snort coined by Lewis Carroll
- 7. make fun of someone by imitating him/her in an exaggerated way
- 9. Occupational Therapy gives people the "skills for the job of living"
- 15. a landing place for boats and ships built along the water

- 17. waiting
 - 18. wear away
 - 19. to gather together into a bundle
 - 20. a reaction because of thinking something as embarrassing
- Down
- 1. knock or bump into somebody
 - 2. to begin, set going, or originate
 - 3. being clear
 - 4. a tool that allows individuals who are not able to talk the opportunity to communicate
 - 8. actually, according to the facts

- 10. to react to something with embarrassment or discomfort
- 11. have space for something
- 12. looking down, looking toward the ground
- 13. pass quickly across something
- 14. a universal key that opens many locks, generally doors
- 16. a system for representing letters and numbers by signs consisting of one or more short or long signals of sound or light that are printed out as dots and dashes