

Radiology!

Across

3. Used for imaging the breast

7. Material put in walls, aprons, gloves etc. to protect us from radiation

10. Nonionizing modality used for imaging pregnant women and children

11. Used in the operating room during surgery

12. Appears on radiograph without accurately representing anatomy

13. Modality used widely today, image immediately available

Down

1. Takes cross sectional images of the patient

2. _____ uses magnets and radio waves to image a patient

4. Use of gamma rays to treat or diagnose disease

5. Radiography in motion

6. _____ x-ray machines are taken to the patient's room

8. Radiographic images are printed on a _____ that can be viewed later by the radiologist

9. Modality that uses wet chemistry to process a radiograph