Rainer Ch 05 Vocabulary

Across

3. A grouping of logically related fields.

6. Each characteristic or quality of a particular entity.

8. (2 words) The cumulative store of subjective or experiential learning, which is highly personal and hard to formalize.

10. (2 words) A set of core data, such as customer, product, employee, vendor, geographic location, and so on, that span an enterprise's information systems.

Down

1. (2 words) The most effective and efficient ways to do things.

2. Operators that illustrate an association between two entities.

4. A group of eight bits that represents a single character.

5. A characteristic of interest that describes an entity.

7. A binary digit that is, a 0 or a 1.

9. (2 words) A diagram that represents entities in the database and their relationships.