

Randall - This Savage song

Across

- 2. Something that can make fire and be a weapon. Something for protection from the monsters. - Page 295
- 4. The city that is divided, the city that is crumbling. Where the novel takes place. - Page 19
- 7. When a monster has not eaten anything for a long time and it shows their true form. Shows that there's more to this monster than meets the eye - Page
- 8. Something to help get away from the monsters. - Page 261
- 9. Sharp and sly, smile and bite and drink you dry. One of the monsters in my novel. - Page 23

- 13. A specific person has these on their stomach, shoulder, eye and hairline. To describe appearance - prologue, page 8
- 14. Made out of silver with a chip inside. So the father can track his daughter. - Page 406
- 15. Something that keeps tracks of how many days a monster has not gone dark. - Prologue, page 20

Down

- 1. Author of the book. Wrote the book. - Cover
- 3. A weapon that a monster uses to paralyze their pray. So the monster can eat there pray. - Page 215
- 5. Eyes like coal, sing you a song and steal your soul. One on the monsters in my novel. - Page 23
- 6. The school in the city Kate lives in. So it can have more plot. - Page 30
- 10. tooth and claw, shadow and bone with eat you raw. One of the monsters in novel. - Page 23
- 11. Something to help escape from the city. - Page 414
- 12. Keeps track of how long the monster has not gone dark. - Page 195