

Name: _____

Date: _____

Reading Review

Across

6. a comparison that uses "like" or "as"
7. a book in which words that have the same or similar meanings are grouped together
8. a narrative point of view where the author is speaking to the reader
9. words that have the same meaning or almost the same
10. the time, place, and conditions in which the action of a book takes place

Down

1. a narrative point of view that uses the pronoun I, me, and my
2. to make changes especially to correct or improve (something)
3. words that have the opposite meaning
4. when you give human qualities or abilities to an object or animal
5. a figure of speech that is used to make a comparison between two things that aren't alike but do have something in common