

Reading STAAR Vocabulary 4th Grade

Across

7. the written instructions in a drama that tell the actors what to do

10. a character typically found in fables, an animal with human characteristics who tries to trick other animals or humans

11. a major division of a drama, made up of scenes

13. the problem that the main character in the story must solve

14. the words characters or actors say to each other

15. the reason why something happens

16. words that have opposite meanings

17. the inner qualities possessed by a character in a story, such as generosity, bravery, or humor

Down

1. the series of events that happen in the story

2. a brief written explanation of a graphic

3. the way in which the conflict in a story is resolved

4. a text that tells the reader how to do or make something

5. the aim or point of a precluded text

6. the reason an author writes, usually to inform, explain, describe, persuade, or entertain

8. a form of poetry that has rhyme, meter and stanza is usually the same number of lines

9. part of an act in a drama. is set in a different time or place

12. the point in a story when the main character deals with the conflict; usually the most exciting part of the story