

Reading

Across

7. a type of text composed of lines and stanzas
 8. a type of text structure that describes a topic by its characteristics and features
 9. a type of text composed of scenes and written to be performed in front of an audience
 11. a type of text structure that writes about a problem and how it is solved
 13. the primary topic or subject of a text
 14. a figure of speech that compares two unlike things by stating one thing is the other

16. a text structure that arranges events or steps in the order of time of occurrence

17. a figure of speech that compares two unlike things using like or as

18. the problem in a story that must be overcome

Down

1. words and phrases in a text that help the reader determine the meaning of unknown words

2. a specific type of text (fiction, biography, mystery)

3. details that support and elaborate on the main idea of a text

4. a text structure that describes the similarities and differences between two topics

5. a text structure that writes about events and actions and their causes and effects

6. the way text is organized

10. a retelling of the main ideas in a text in a shorter version

12. a conclusion made by the reader using facts and evidence from a text combined with the reader's own knowledge

15. the perspective through which a story is told; first or third person