

Red Scarf Girl Vocab

Across

1. youths who followed Mao Zedong without limit, even if at one point they got carried away with their violence
3. Four Olds; old customs, culture, habits, and ideas
10. The country Ji-li lived in before moving to the US
12. was forced to climb a chimney!
13. China's capital
14. messages immortalized by a specific group through the use of songs, poster, media, speeches, photographs, etc.

16. The main character of RSG who once was brainy and popular, and predicted that she'll have a future of honor, but when she was 12, she thought was wrong, because of the Cultural Revolution (She is 1 year older than Ji-yong, 2 years younger than Ji-yun)
17. is what Ji-li is willing to have but couldn't since Mao Zedong launched the Cultural Revolution
18. accused Ji-li because of her class status
19. Derogatory posters, in which the purpose of them was to humiliate people

Down

2. A 10-yr lasting socialpolitical movement where its founder, Chairman Mao, eliminated the old culture and replaced it with a NEW one based on communism (1966-1976)

4. Ji-li decided to move there in 1984
5. Ji-li's youngest 10 year old sister who's 2 years younger than Ji-li and 1 year younger than Ji-yong (Her book bag was stolen)
6. The man that is a house raid leader
7. A book of Mao's sayings
8. Ji-li's 11 year old brother who's 1 year younger than Ji-li but 1 year older than Ji-yun and the middle child (His cap was stolen)
9. The founder of the Cultural Revolution and Communist party leader (1893-1976)
11. the one who took Ji-li to the park to avoid being involved in a house raid
15. The Best Friend of Ji-li (They both go to school together)