

Regan's Excel Puzzle

Across

- 3. A related worksheets collection
- 4. The basic unit of a worksheet; intersection of row and column space
- 5. Pie, Line, Column, Bar;
- 11. A built in command that can be used to add, subtract, and round
- 12. Indication symbol of what operations to use (+)(-)(*)(/)

13. An identifier which combines column letter and row number

14. A grid containing letters, numbers, and formulas that perform specific functions in its cells

15. Data in a cell's position

Down

1. Space made of rows and columns where data is entered in cell spaces

2. Groups of letters and punctuation that can be used as data in the program

6. Shows the relationship of a part to the whole

7. Selected cell ready for data entry

8. Largest value in a group of values

9. Adds all the data in a cell

10. A horizontal group of cells identified in a worksheet by numbers