

Regions and Eras

Across

3. The second largest canyon in North America.
 4. Native Americans that remained in one place.
 6. The region that includes Lubbock and Amarillo.
 10. The region with the largest population.
 11. The river that serves as the border between Texas and Mexico.

13. The average weather of a place.

14. The term for Native Americans that followed their food supply around.

Down

1. A period of time that has specific characteristics.
 2. This region is the driest and has the highest elevation.

5. This region's biggest cities are Fort Worth and Abilene.

7. The river that creates the border between Texas and Oklahoma.

8. The capital of Texas.

9. The resource that most influences where people live.

12. Land that has specific features and characteristics.