

Name: _____

Date: _____

Rehab Week Crossword Puzzle

Across

4. After a lumbar fusion, which brace is typically used to help stabilize the patient's spine?
7. This therapy evaluates patients activities of daily living (dressing, bathing, toileting, grooming, feeding, etc.)
10. How many employees work in the rehab department?
13. When you need to locate therapy notes, which tab do you use to find them in Meditech?
16. This tool is placed around a patient's waist by therapists and nursing to ensure a patient's safety when out of bed.
17. Who is the manager of the therapy department and available for any questions or concerns?
20. What is the abbreviation for Certified Occupational Therapy Assistant?
22. What is another name for dysphagia 1 diet?

Down

1. If patient is non-weight bearing in bilateral lower extremities, then what piece of equipment could be used to transfer this patient?
2. What is the youngest child on our pediatric caseload?
3. What type of degree is currently required for entry level Physical and Occupational therapists?
5. Can the answer to number 14 across complete evaluations and develop treatment plans?
6. What color scrubs do Speech, Physical, and Occupational therapists wear?
8. How many days a week do therapists work?
9. This therapy evaluates both fine and gross motor functions including strength, balance, transfers, gait, and stairs.
11. Where are modified barium swallow studies performed by the speech-language pathologists?

12. What is the abbreviation for Physical Therapy Assistant?

14. This kind of order i not signed by a physician and therefore cannot be entered for therapy consults.

15. What is the abbreviation for the certification of a therapist working in lymphedema?

18. This therapy evaluates and treats communication (language, cognition, motor speech) and swallowing deficits.

19. What is the abbreviation for activities of daily living (self-care activities) addressed by therapists?

21. What department must evaluate and make recommendations for insurance authorization prior to a patient's d/c to SNF or IPR?