

Name: _____

Date: _____

Relationships

Across

2. living outside for the fun of it for a few days, usually with friends or family during warm weather

5. a way of responding to hurt which hides anger first, then after that is mean

7. being free to say yes or no, but saying yes

10. being in charge of your own life in a way that works out well for everyone

11. people usually think this word refers to art but it definitely is needed in relationships to problem solve

14. paperwork that negatively affects SSL: _____ license

15. when you control what is inside of you instead of trying to control other people

16. a meal eaten on the go; usually on a picnic blanket

17. blood relatives

18. How you know if someone is good for you: they are _____ to be with

Down

1. mean

3. a way of responding to others where you never tell them that what they do bothers you

4. how you get to know new things you didn't know before

6. If I know my _____ and tell them to others, they know what kind of behavior I will accept or tolerate and what I will do if they do something that crosses that line

8. a fun water activity; take a buddy along

9. what you do with a bike

12. it's deeper than just knowing about something because you _____ why things are the way they are

13. relationships that are good for you are described as _____