

Name: _____ Date: _____ Period: _____

Renaissance

Across

2. A formal redemption as pronounced by a priest in the sacrament penance usually a payment of money

10. Economic decisions based on Customs or beliefs of the community, family, clan or tribe

12. An argument or for a particular issue, particularly used during the reformation, made famous by Martin Luther

13. A widespread occurrence of an infectious disease in a community at a particular time

14. Head of the Roman Catholic Church

15. A painting or mural that was used to symbolize a story or myth that was painted on plaster

Down

1. The period of Catholic revival from the pontificate Pope Pius IV in 1560 to the close of the Thirty Years War

3. A member or follower of the churches separate from the Roman Catholic Church

4. Economy in which decisions about investment production and distribution based on supply and demand

5. A system of government that combines a city and the surrounding country

6. The period in Europe during the 14th-17th centuries when there was a surge of interest in literature and art

7. A person during the Renaissance that showed their appreciation of the arts by donating their money

8. A person that is officially excluded from the rights and sacraments of the church

9. A very religious man who lived in isolation and devoted his time to reflection and prayer

11. A person that disagreed with religious ideals during the reformation