

Renaissance Figures

Across

3. This painter, sculpture, engineer, and botanist is considered a true Renaissance Man.

4. Shakespeare is considered one of the world's greatest ____.

7. Before Vesalius, students of anatomy only dissected ____.

9. Don Quixote is a novel that pokes fun at ____.

12. This is what you call a painting made on wet plaster.

14. Durer is best known for his____, a style that printers would use.

15. Vesalius was a Renaissance figure who studied ____.

16. Michelangelo painted for what patron family?

17. Michelangelo's "ffinger of God" was painted on the ceiling of what chapel?

19. In the theory of Copernicus, the ____ was the center of the solar system.

21. This English queen was educated away from her Royal father Henry and was peace and stability during her reign.

22. Miguel Cervantes, a Spanish writer is best known for "____", a comic novel

23. Queen Elizabeth created a golden age for England when her forces defeated the Spanish "-." a word for fleet of war ships.

25. What famous Michelangelo sculpture has a title meaning, "pity".

Down

1. Isabella I funded ____ to explore a new sea route to Asia.

2. This artist created the David and was an exceptional painter.

5. Johannes Gutenberg creates this device that makes learning easier.

6. ____ was an artist from Germany. He painted made prints and wrote about painting.

8. Titian was made a ____, a first for a painter.

10. This Renaissance person was known as the "father of astronomy".

11. This is a word given to people who are very learned.

13. This Renaissance painter pretended to be poor to sell more of his work.

18. This Spanish queen taught herself Latin and helped create a unified Spain.

20. Shakespeare is given credit for writing ____ plays.

24. Isabella and Ferdinand made ____ convert to Christianity or forced them to leave Spain.

Word Bank

woodcuts

Michelangelo

Durer

Elizabeth

playwright

scholars

daVinci

armada

fresco

DonQuiote

knight

printing press

thirtyeight

Medici

Copernicus

Columbus

Titian

animals

knights

sun

anatomy

Isabella

LaPieta

Jews

Sistine