

Reproductive System

Across

2. A physician who specializes in diagnosing and treating the genitourinary system of males and the urinary system of females.

3. The beginning of menstruation

7. Exchanges nutrients and waste between the mother and fetus during pregnancy

8. A potentially dangerous pregnancy in which a fertilized egg is implanted and begins to develop outside of the uterus.

10. Abbreviation for neonatal intensive care unit

13. Absence of sperm in the semen

14. eggs

15. _____ twins are the result of fertilization of two separate ova by two sperm cells.

Down

1. Surgical removal of the foreskin of the penis

4. A fluid filled sac containing a single ovum

5. Male sterilization in which small portion of the vas deferens is surgically removed

6. Referred to as ADAM, and marked by a decrease of testosterone

9. Caused by bacterium chlamydia trachomatis, and is the most commonly reported STD in the US.

11. An _____ score is a scale of 1-10 to evaluate a newborn's physical status 1 and 5 minutes after birth.

12. A breast infection caused by bacteria that enter the breast tissue.