

Name: _____

Date: _____

Research Words

Across

3. The final paragraph of a paper.

6. Magazines, newspapers, and journals.

9. The bulk of the paper.

11. Giving credit to where you found your information.

12. A prewriting device that helps organize your paper.

13. Complete record of the sources referred to in the paper.

Down

1. The general subject of the essay or paper.

2. To tell the main points in your own words.

4. A single sentence that focuses your paper and tells your reader what the essay will be about.

5. Using someone else's words or ideas as your own.

7. The first paragraph of a paper

8. To furnish evidence for a particular belief or conclusion.

10. A belief that is not backed by proof.