Research and Writting Repost Vocab

Across
4. libraries that limit their collection to one type or just a few types of material
8. order they go in
12. combining multiple questions
15. system that asks for a key search term
18. using the symbol # to mark keywords or topics
19. microblogging service that lets you send and read message
21. asking respondant to rank a number of alternative answers to a question in order of prerfernce
22. information stored digitally
23. research tool
25. short contructures (1 to 2 words)

28. orderly arrangement of survey questions
29. based on chance
30. question that influences the following anwesers

Down
1. way for people to organize, store, manage, search, and share thire favorite web resources
2. public, college, and uiversity libraries
3. ability to make survey trustwothy
5. uncovering information first hand, producing new information
6. using materials that someone else published
7. an ivaluable aid at the begining stage of the process
9. essential to a good report

10. group interview
11. information that has something to do with a location
13. electronic mailing lists
14. ordley and objective communication of factual information that serves a business purpose
16. measuring the intesity of the respondants feelings
17. scale showing the complete range of possible attitude on a topic
20. basic colloborative collections of lnowledge
24. small scale version of a study
26. an online network of library content and services
27. things that go together