

Respiratory Assessment

Across

1. What disorder does the patient have if they experience late inspiratory crackles not affected by coughing or position changes?
5. What are musical sounds that occur when air moves quickly through mucous filled and narrow airways?
9. How do you begin your physical assessment?
11. Which vaccine should be given just once to adults over age 65?

13. What are very loud, lower pitched sound as heard over the stomach?

14. What is a short, soft, high-pitched, and extremely dull sound?

15. What is a creaking or grating sound caused by the inflamed pleural surfaces rubbing together?

Down

2. What does a comprehensive respiratory assessment include?
3. What does the "r" stand for in CRAMP?

4. What is a loud, high-pitched, drum like sound?

6. What are popping or bubbling sounds that occur when air is forced through fluid-filled airways?

7. What are high pitched, harsh tubular sounds heard over the trachea and throat?

8. What is it called when the patient has to lean forward to get an adequate breath?

10. What are thudlike sounds as heard over solid organs?

12. What does the "m" stand for in CRAMP?