

Name: _____

Date: _____

Respiratory Failure

Across

- 3. CO₂ retention
- 4. lack of oxygen in blood
- 7. _____ might be described as the following in a patient with respiratory failure: wheezes, rhonci, crackles, decreased
- 8. exchange of air between lungs and atmosphere
- 9. bluish discoloration of skin resulting from poor circulation
- 11. a possible cause of respiratory failure that includes fluid accumulation in lung tissue

Down

- 1. partial or complete collapse of lung area resulting in decreased oxygenation ability
- 2. a plastic device used for pulmonary toileting
- 5. treatment modalities for respiratory failure depend on the _____
- 6. we encourage patients to perform this type of exercise as a form of pulmonary toileting
- 10. testing for oxygen, and carbon dioxide levels in blood