

Respiratory

Across

2. A normal drive to breathe is caused from an increase in _____ (2 words).
5. What should you instruct the patient to do after using a powdered inhaler or a steroid inhaler (2 words)?
8. This SABA is used as a rescue inhaler only.
9. What is the most effective over the counter (OTC) non-opioid cough suppressant.

10. This medication is an expectorant to help produce productive coughs.

11. A Leukotriene Inhibitor used to treat asthma.
12. If a patient is to receive a steroid and a bronchodilator, which medication should be given first?

Down

1. This combination drug contains a LABA and a steroid and is a maintenance/prophylactic inhaler.

3. Do not administer antitussive medications to a patient who has this (2 words).
4. Cardiac side effect of Theophylline.
6. COPD is obstruction of airflow _____ the lungs.
7. Antitussives often contain this class of medications. Naloxone may be needed for accidental overdose.