

Restraint Competency

Across

3. RNs can _____ restraints when they are no longer medically appropriate
4. A provider order is needed to initiate these precautions, but an RN can initiate them in an emergency as long as an order is obtained as soon as possible
8. A person with this job title continuously observes a patient in thier room while on suicide precautions
9. RN must document on a patient in non-violent restraints every _____ hours
10. An _____ will be performed by the charge nurse on documentation completed by the RN caring for the patient in restraints before the end of their shift
12. An order for violent restraints on an adult needs to be renewed every _____ hours

13. An order for non-violent restraints needs to be renewed by the MD every _____ days

15. Your patient is placed in soft restraints because he is pulling on his tracheostomy. This is what type of restraint?

Down

1. At a minimum, the RN needs to document the suicide _____ every shift
2. _____ is an important part of caring for a patient in restraints and must be completed in its entirety at the end of your shift
5. How frequently does the nurse need to document continuous monitoring
6. When four side rails are up to keep a patient in a bed it is considered a _____

7. This type of restraint is not done on inpatient units

11. Seclusion is when a patient is left alone in a room and is NOT under continuous observation by a security gaurd (True or False)

14. A patient in suicide precautions if not allowed to leave their _____