

Name: _____

Review Game

Across

7. This refers to an interest rate that remains fixed, or the same, over the life of the loan.

11. The total amount of money in a banking account at any given time.

12. A machine that allows you to make electronic deposits and withdrawals from your bank accounts.

13. The government agency in charge of collecting taxes from US citizens.

15. A type of savings vehicle in which you put your money away for a certain amount of time, called a term, to allow your principal to earn interest.

16. Your deductible is the amount you are required to pay toward each claim you make before your insurance kicks in.

17. The owner of a property.

20. An amount of money that the property owner holds onto during the lease that can later be used to pay for any damages to the property caused by the renter.

Down

1. This is a type of federal student loan on which the government does not pay the interest that accrues while a student is in school.

2. Is the amount of time you have to pay back a balance before it starts accumulating.

3. A tax form filled out by an individual and filed with the IRS that determines the amount of income tax owed in a single year.

4. The renter of a property.

5. A tax that pays for health care for people aged 65 and over.

6. A method for estimating how long it will take compound interest to cause a principal to double by dividing the interest rate by 72.

8. A type of insurance that covers the cost of medical expenses.

9. Property owned by an individual or organization that has some value.

10. Anything you spend money on, from a pack of gum to your monthly cell phone bill.

14. Often used to complete a transaction made with a debit card.

18. A budget is a plan of how you will spend the money that you make or receive.

19. When money is taken out of a bank account.