

Revolutionary War Crossword Puzzle: Project Number Thirteen

Across

3. someone who holds the belief that war and violence are pointless and unjustifiable
 6. an introducing or preliminary statement
 12. someone who is extremely loyal to their country and are prepared to defend it
 13. to revoke or annul a law or decree made by a government
 15. irregular war tactics usually used by independent military forces
 18. to end all commercial and or social relations with a certain person, organization, or country
 19. someone who remains loyal to a ruler or elected government, especially in the face of a revolt
 20. professional and trained soldiers hired to served in a foreign military force

23. colonists who organized private militias that were said to be ready in a minute's notice
 24. an increase in prices

Down

1. a tax or other duty to be paid on particular types of goods
 2. to abandon someone or something in a way considered treasonous
 4. an armed ship owned by private individuals used typically in the capture of enemy vessels
 5. a military force derived from the civilian population in place of a trained military
 7. a person killed or injured in a war or other incident
 8. a formal request usually peaceably and respectfully appealing to an authority figure with respect to a certain cause

9. a collection of military supplies and other weapons
 10. to solve a problem
 11. to close or seal off a place to prevent people or objects from coming in and/or getting out
 14. biased or misleading information used to promote a particular product, point of view, or organization
 16. to sign or consent formally to a contract or other binding agreement, hereby making it official
 17. a surprise attack on an unsuspecting group made by a group usually in a concealed position
 21. a person enlisted in a military force
 22. a (typically substantial) income