

Revolutionary War Crossword Puzzle

Across

2. 14. This commander was able to organize untrained soldiers in the Continental
3. 13. This army's typical strategy was to capture the capital or a central area of a
4. 2. This battle, that was fought on July 17, 1775, was the bloodiest that occurred before the signing of the Declaration of
10. 4. Commander George Washington brought 23,000 troops to defend the City of New York at this
11. 1. This war lasted from
12. 10. This army was familiar with surrounding areas and had strong leadership from officers, but lacked discipline and contained untrained
15. 7. This army changed their war strategy after the Battles of

16. 3. This army's plan was to isolate New England by capturing New York
18. 16. The representatives from the U.S. demanded what from Britain before signing the Treaty of

Down

1. 6. The Continental Army was forced to retreat which led to the British moving northward and capturing Philadelphia at this
5. 9. This person agreed to a Treaty of Alliance with France in
6. 18. In September of 1783, which treaty was
7. 5. This army won the Battle of Trenton and Princeton by taking a risk and leading around 2,400 soldiers across the Delaware River on Christmas Day of

8. 15. This battle in October of 1781 marked the end of the Revolutionary
9. 11. This army had a strong and trained army and a powerful central government, but was unfamiliar with the territory and had weak
13. 12. The Continental army had a huge advantage over the British army because of the separation of Great Britain by this
14. 8. This country made a decision to support the Continental Army after the Battle of 17. 17. This country supported the U.S., but wanted to limit the power of the