

Rhetorical Strategies in "On Nuclear Disarmament"

Across

2. The author uses the phrase "One bomb" in line 25 and again in line 29. This is an example of ____.
6. Sagan described the events that took place during the Battle of Gettysburg in the first paragraph; this was his ____ or way of getting the audience's attention.
7. Read the following statement: The human race should unite to disarm nuclear weapons for the sake of our species and the planet. This is the author's argument or ____.
9. What rhetorical strategy is used in this quote: "ancestors of some of us, brothers of us all"?
10. The term "blockbuster," as it is used in Sagan's speech, is a term that only military personnel would understand. This is an example of what kind of speech?

Down

1. The use of first-person pronouns in quotes such as "We make mistakes. We kill our own" and "This is what is expected of us..our ethics command it"?
3. World leaders, military generals, ordinary citizens -- these groups are all a part of the author's ____.
4. To argue a position is the author's ____ for writing this speech.
5. The speech was given during the time of the Cold War. This information puts the speech in ____ for the reader.
8. What rhetorical strategy is used in this quote: "A few hundred artillery pieces were deployed in the three-day battle of Gettysburg"?
11. Lines 122 - 124 contain an example of what kind of repetition?