

Roaring Twenties

Across

2. Movement of over 300,000 African American from the rural south into Northern cities between 1914 and 1920
5. He was the first person to fly to Paris from France a transatlantic flight.
8. A political advocate of socialism
9. A policy of nonparticipation in international economic and political relations
12. A reason for doing something; something that stimulates action
14. National Association for the Advancement of Colored People
16. Someone who makes or sells illegal liquor
17. A young woman in the 1920s who flaunted her unconventional conduct and dress
20. New products meant new ways to sell it.
22. A period in the 1920s when African-American achievements in art and music and literature flourished

23. Illegal bar that served liquor during Prohibition
24. The period from 1920 to 1933 when the sale of alcoholic beverages was prohibited in the United States by a constitutional amendment
25. An arrangement placing a limit on the number of immigrants from each country
26. A style of dance music popular in the 1920s
27. Amendment to the U.S. Constitution (1920) extended the right to vote to women in federal or state elections.
28. Movement up or down the social class ladder
29. Harlem renaissance writer and poet
30. Government Saving

Down

1. The growth of low density development outward from the edges of a city
3. An economic system based on state ownership of capital
4. A period of general fear of communists

6. An ethical or moral code that applies more strictly to one group than to another
7. A system for paying for goods by installments
10. Rags to riches
11. A policy of favoring native-born individuals over foreign-born ones
13. An economic system that combines private and state enterprises
15. An economy that relies chiefly on market forces to allocate goods and resources and to determine prices
18. A desire for wealth and material possessions with little interest in ethical or spiritual matters
19. Living in or characteristic of farming or country life
21. A policy of favoring native-born individuals over foreign-born ones