

Name: _____

Date: _____

Roman Vocabulary

Across

2. a kind of apartment building that housed most of the urban citizen population of ancient Rome, including ordinary people of lower- or middle-class

6. the highest elected political office of the Roman Republic

7. general body of Roman citizens, as distinct from the patrician class

9. a title granted by the government of Ancient Rome to men acting in one of two official capacities: the commander of an army (in the field or, less often, before the army had been mustered); or, an elected magistratus

10. the head of a Roman family, the oldest living male in a household

Down

1. ruling board or commission of three men

3. Roman style of government

4. Roman magistrate with extraordinary powers, appointed during an emergency

5. a part of the titulature of the Roman Emperors as part of their cognomen

8. referred to a group of ruling class families in ancient Rome.