

Rome Review

Across

- 3. It is 252 miles (405 km) long. Twisting in a generally southerly direction
- 6. what do you call a state in which supreme power is held by the people and their elected representatives?
- 9. adopted son and heir of Julius Caesear
- 10. What do you call someone who is not part of the elite land-owning class?
- 11. What do you call the leader of an empire?

- 13. a Roman politician and general who played a critical role in the transformation of the Roman Republic from an oligarchy into the autocratic Roman Empire.
- 14. what do you call a ruler with absolute power?
- 15. What was the name of the garment worn by the upper class in Rome?
- 16. what do you call a group of three leaders sharing control of the roman government?

Down

- 1. What is the highest position in the Roman government? There are two of them.

- 2. US Senate passes laws; Roman Senate passed...
- 4. Who was the man that led the army that defeated Pompey?
- 5. the act of killing a prominent person for either political, religious or monetary reasons.
- 7. What do you call someone who is an elected representative of the Plebeian Council?
- 8. These three led rome together--Julius Caesar, Marcus Crassus, and ...
- 12. What is someone called when they are a member of the original elite land-owning families of Rome?