

Rome & Juliet Literary Terms

Across

- 4. A character who changes as a result of his motives or situation
- 13. The plot structure of dramatic work
- 15. Word spoken in an undertone not to be heard by other characters
- 18. A figure of speech comparing one thing to another thing
- 19. A long play is divided into these chapters, each one covering a long block of action
- 20. The explaining of background info
- 21. A 14 line poem that rhymes
- 22. A state of anxious uncertainty about what may happen
- 24. A play on word
- 25. A character delivers a memorized, formal speech

- 26. The main character final attempt to solve the resolution of the conflict
 - 27. An reference to something we all know
 - 28. Two consecutive lines of poetry that rhyme at the end of the poem
 - 29. Words meaning different then its literal interpretation
- Down
- 1. A figure of speech in which apparently contradictory terms are combined side by side
 - 2. A line written in un-rhyming iambic
 - 3. El corazón of the story
 - 5. Four lines that rhyme at every other line
 - 6. Poetry that contains 10 syllabus, 5 stressed
 - 7. An adjective or phrase of description characteristics

- 8. The reason a character has for acting that way
- 9. Device where by the audience understand more then the characters
- 10. The use of hints or clues for events that will occur later in the plot
- 11. At first a seemingly common sense statement and yet is perhaps true
- 12. Out of date language
- 14. A poetic foot of 1 unstressed and 1 stressed syllables
- 16. A long, uninterrupted speech spoken in the presence of others
- 17. Placing 2 characters right next to each other who have different to make them both stand out
- 23. A character speaks aloud to himself

Word Bank

Dramatic character	Quatrain	Exposition	Couplet	Iambic perimeter
Monologue	Figurative language	Act	Oxymoron	Soliloquy
Simile	Blank verse	Dramatic structure	Allusion	Aside
Suspense	Dramatic irony	Prologue	Archaic language	Motivation
Theme	Climax	Sonnet	Paradox	Foreshadowing
Iambic meter	Pun	Foil	Epithet	