

Romeo and Juliet- Act 1

Across

- 6. to speak of in a disrespectful way that belittles
- 8. so great in size and force as to elicit awe
- 9. a period of consecutive days
- 12. a future generation
- 13. to mislead or trick
- 15. lose vigor or health
- 16. indicate by sign, foretell by bad news

17. inclined to be easily irritated or annoyed

19. those who hold a belief opposed to the church

20. poetic expression of beauty

Down

- 1. distant but in sight
- 2. to be unable to move further
- 3. fraught with danger
- 4. one who is deeply faithful

5. to harm or damage, to injure, to criticize severely

7. the appearance conveyed by a person's face

10. boring wordiness

11. magnificent

14. a belief accepted as authoritative by the same group

18. something of small importance