

Name: _____ Date: _____ Period: _____

Romeo and Juliet Act II Vocabulary

Across

3. To represent fictitiously; put an appearance of
 5. To look angry or sullen; frown
 6. To listen to; give heed to
 9. To appeal to solemnly or earnestly
 14. A companion, associate, or partner
 15. To talk foolishly; babble
 16. Without regard for what is right; careless
 18. A short journey, especially one taken for pleasure
 19. The mass of eggs contained in the ovaries of a female fish

21. To hold as an opinion; think; believe; to become pregnant

22. To accompany or escort; usually for protection

24. The action of being involved on behalf of another

Down

1. A condition that determines an event or factor

2. Unmarried; no engaging in sexual relations; celibate

4. Deserving to be despised, or regarded with dictate, or disgust

7. To treat or regard erroneously as identical; mix or associate by mistake

8. To go against someone or something

10. To feel a need or a desire for; with for

11. Any thin, light fabric

12. Lack of seriousness or sense

13. Without advice or counsel; uninformed

17. To ask earnestly; beseech; beg for something

20. Quiet; Reserved

23. Water saturated or strongly impregnated with salt

Word Bank

Chaste	Lour	Confound	Conjure	Conceive	Attend
Consort	Entreat	Prate	Convoy	Intercession	Roe
Feign	Brine	Gossamer	Coy	Jaunt	Despicable
Unadvised	Bewitch	Frivolous	Circumstance	Wanting	Wanton