

Roy's Adaptation Model

Across

- 2. Focusing on the stimuli that influences this type of behavior
- 3. The aggregate of social and cultural conditions that influence the life of an individual or community.
- 6. Humans are biophysical beings due to their what type of interaction with the changing environment.
- 9. This model was the theoretical framework that was used to study this as observed by lung transplant candidates and their caregivers (three words).
- 10. This theory focuses on the person as a total being, whereas medicine focuses on the patient's (two words)

Down

- 1. She also earned a Master's Degree in Sociology in 1973, and went on to complete a Doctorate degree in Sociology in 1977 (three words).
- 4. Any living or extinct member of the family Hominidae
- 5. The goal of nursing, per this theory, is to promote this for patient during illness and health in all four of the modes.
- 7. The job of taking care of people who are sick, injured, or old
- 8. Freedom from physical disease and pain