

SS Midterm Review

Across

4. will reimburse the insured for any damage sustained to their personal automobile that is due to the fault of the insured driver
 6. a payment made by a beneficiary (especially for health services) in addition to that made by an insurer.
 7. covers medical expenses and, in many cases, lost wages. It is often called "no-fault"
 10. a specified amount of money that the insured must pay before an insurance company will pay a claim.
 12. annual percentage rate

13. amount of money that an individual or business must pay for an insurance policy.
 14. the amount you actually receive in your paycheck after deductions are
 16. a plan for spending and saving money
 17. personal data sheet that describes you to prospective employers
 18. 1 of the 3 C's of credit - do you possess the honesty and reliability to
 19. contracting out certain tasks to other companies

Down

1. Family, Career and Community Leaders of America
 2. the total amount of your earnings before deductions

3. provides for a driver to receive damages for any injury he or she receives from an uninsured, negligent driver
 5. protection against vehicle damages not caused by a collision
 8. protects an individual or business from the risk that they may be sued and held legally liable for something
 9. 1 of the 3 C's of credit - ability to repay the debt
 11. 1 of the 3 C's of credit - assets that could be used to repay credit debt
 15. the value of a piece of property after any debts that remain to be paid for it have been subtracted

Word Bank

Collision	Deductible	Liability	PIP	Equity
Copay	Capital	Resume	NetPay	Budget
FCCLA	Uninsured	Capacity	Comprehensive	Character
Premium	APR	GrossPay	Outsourcing	