

STAAR vocab 3

Across

5. Numbers, tables, and graphs used to support a claim

6. The repetition of a similar sound

7. Directions included in the script that tells actors exactly what to do and how to do it

9. Shows similarities and differences between two or more things

10. A long speech in which a character speaks at length to only himself or herself

11. A cause is why something happens while effect is what happens

12. A description that appeals to the 5 senses (sight, sound, smell, touch and taste)

13. A long speech in which one character speaks at length to another character

14. Presents information in sequence or in the order in which it happens

Down

1. The occurrence of the same letter or sound at the beginning or adjacent to or closely connected words

2. The main idea in an essay to the proven or explained

3. A curse when an actor turns to speak directly to the audience

4. A pattern of organization where information in a pressure is expressed as a dilemma or concerning issue and something that was, can be or should be done to remedie the issue

8. A charcter that has traits that are exactly the opposite of the protagonist traits