

STARR Vocabulary

Across

- 6. a category in literature characterized by similarities in form and style
- 8. an opinion considered to be true by most people, but not backed up with facts/example: Milk is good for you.
- 10. the part of the text told using illustrations, pictures or diagrams
- 13. the reason why something is done

- 14. the relationships in information; chronological, cause and effect
- 15. the use of something to represent something else

Down

- 1. make a considered decision or come to a conclusion
- 2. the reason one has for behaving or acting a certain way
- 3. the ability to have an effect on someone or something, get someone to change their mind

- 4. purpose, how something works
- 5. the meaning you get from a form of communication
- 7. the way you say something
- 9. the form of communication; novel, play, film, audio
- 11. the way the text makes you feel
- 12. make your answer clear, explain your answer