

STI Crossword Puzzle

Across

4. Sharing these while using drugs can also spread an STI.

6. The HIV virus may lead a person to be diagnosed with this, a more advanced disease in the body.

9. This is a very common STI that is caused by bacteria that often has few symptoms making it easy to pass on to others.

11. 4 sexual ways STI's can be spread are oral, anal, intimate contact and this?

12. This virus has no cure and may cause genital warts or cancer.

13. This STI is a virus that attacks the liver and has no vaccine but is curable.

14. The most effective way in preventing an STI.

Down

1. An STI caused from a bacteria and produces sores in the mouth and a rash on hands and feet.

2. Caused from a protozoan and has the symptoms of itching, burning and a painful discharge.

3. An STI that is viral with symptoms of painful blisters on or around the genitals.

5. This term refers to an STI that has few or very mild symptoms which makes it hard to detect.

7. The HIV virus attacks these immune system cells in the body.

8. This parasite is spread from genital to genital contact and lives on pubic hair.

10. This STI is viral, incurable, and weakens your immune system. (Virus letters)