

Name: _____

Date: _____

STROKE

Across

2. loss of ability to recognize objects through a particular sensory system

6. weakness of one side of the body, or part of it, due to an injury in the motor area of the brain

10. Combination of both receptive and expressive aphasia

12. a warning of impending stroke

14. a weakening or bulge in an arterial wall

15. tissue necrosis in an area deprived of blood supply

16. which therapist evaluates swallowing

17. inability to express oneself or to understand language

Down

1. type of stroke

3. paralysis of one side of the body, or part of it, due to an injury in the motor area of the brain

4. unsteady gait

5. area of low cerebral blood flow

7. inability to perform previously learned purposeful motor acts on a voluntary basis

8. type of aphasia; inability to understand what someone else is saying;

9. difficulty swallowing expressive

11. blindness of half of the field of vision in one or both eyes

13. defects of articulation due to neurologic causes