

Name: _____

Date: _____

SW #3

Across

3. a distinct period of history

5. place, people or things from which something comes or is obtained

9. almost correct or exact

11. a piece of sculpture, drawing, pottery, or creation made by people

12. the remains or impressions of prehistoric organisms preserved or cast in rock

Down

1. an official count of all the people in a country

2. people who study plants, animals and other organisms that existed in prehistoric times

4. people who study people who lived in the past

6. a source written by people who were not involved in what they are writing about

7. primary sources that are very old items

8. before now

10. a firsthand account of an event by someone who was there