

Name: _____

Date: _____

Sadlier Vocabulary Workshop Level E Unit 9

Across

3. His jokes seemed _____, but were in fact carefully prepared beforehand.
7. His kiss was _____ and she returned it with equal passion.
12. Growing up with five unbridled brothers, Sally learned to be _____, sometimes getting in trouble with teachers for talking out of turn and asking rude questions.
13. The photograph was a _____ reminder of her childhood.
15. In many world religions, the deity is considered _____, able to control nature, time, and life itself.
17. Rather than _____ a young child for immature behavior, parents should praise him/her for good behavior.

18. The most successful students share one crucial trait: they take _____ detailed notes in class and rewrite them in their own words nightly.

19. The truth is not always very _____.

20. All drivers are required to have insurance which offers _____ for damage caused to drivers and property.

Down

1. Their angry, _____ conversation got everyone's attention.

2. It is challenging to _____ from the high fat, high sugar American diet with so many fast food restaurants.

4. The team _____ over their victory.

5. The old _____ trees of the forest grew up to the edge of another bank, their roots jutting out into the deep water.

6. After drinking too much alcohol, the celebrity made _____ comments that turned his fans against him.

8. The social committee voted to _____ funds for the upcoming holiday parties.

9. Given Sean's _____ nature, always chasing the next "best thing," we couldn't rely on him to make any reliable decisions.

10. Had it not been for Spud Webb's _____ nature, at only 5'7" tall he never would have made it to the NBA!

11. Many children leave catalogs laying around with circled items to give parents an _____ of what they really want for Christmas.

14. Because some sick animals refuse to eat, many of them become _____.

16. The lagoon was so _____, we could see all the beautiful fish and coral beneath.

Word Bank

copious

allocate

palatable

rancorous

chastise

ardent

deviate

emaciated

brash

limpid

sophomoric

assiduous

spontaneous

omnipotent

inkling

poignant

capricious

exulted

gnarled

indemnity