

Safe Working 1

Across

5. The area between the end of one yard and the start of another. This area only uses automatic signals

11. A _____ is a set of rules, procedures and structures designed to ensure the safe operation of trains

12. The _____ is all space within 3m horizontally from the nearest rail and any distance above or below this 3m, unless a safe place exists

13. An authority to occupy a section of track can be a verbal or _____ authority

15. Vehicles require this in order to occupy a section of track

17. A place where people and equipment cannot be struck by rail traffic

19. Allowing for normal travel in one direction only according to the infrastructure and system of safeworking in use

21. Portions of line where the system of safeworking relies on track-circuits to detect the presence of rail traffic are called _____ territory

22. It is the responsibility of train crew ensure that a _____ is carried out before the first run of a train each day to ensure they can be operated safely in the network

23. _____ are used by Qualified Workers to prevent unintended issue of Proceed Authorities or signalling or point equipment operation

24. The "Road rules" that govern the railways are call the _____ and _____

Down

1. A double light colour light signal ahead is a green over yellow indication. This signal is called a what?

2. Allowing for normal movement of rail traffic in either direction according to the infrastructure and system of safeworking in use

3. The speed at which a train is required to travel at if its whistle is not working

4. A double light colour light signal ahead is a yellow over red indication. This signal is called a what?

6. A qualified worker who manages the safe and efficient operation of the network on a day to day basis

7. A qualified worker who works points and signalling equipment to manage safe rail traffic routes on the network

8. The double light colour light signal ahead is a green over red indication. What is the next signal aspect expected to follow this signal?

9. When walking in the Danger Zone, workers must wear approved _____ clothing

10. There are two types of speed signs found in the network, permanent and _____. These signs take precedence over permanent speed signs

14. Marker lights are used to convey the direction in which a train is travelling. _____ marker lights would be used to indicate the front of the train

16. A system of tracks within a limited area that is controlled by a signaller and filled with controlled signals

18. An authority to occupy a section of track can be a _____ or a _____ indication on a signal

20. The system of safeworking used in the Sydney Train Network (abbr)