

Name: _____

Date: _____

Safety

Across

4. OSHA standards that require contractors to educate employees about chemical hazards.

6. capable of easily igniting and rapidly burning at a flash point below 100 degrees.

11. equipment or clothing designed to prevent or reduce injuries.

13. Capable of easily igniting and rapidly burning at a flash point at or above 100 degrees.

14. An unplanned event that causes personal injury and property damage.

15. Incidental grounding of a conducting electrical wire.

16. a document that must accompany any hazard substance.

17. the organization of a company's management, including reporting procedures, supervisory responsibility, and administration.

Down

1. Capable of identifying existing hazards and has the authority to eliminate them.

2. a work area large enough to work in but has limited space.

3. an agency of the US department of labor.

5. a culture is created when the whole company sees the value of a safe work environment.

7. powered by air pressure.

8. a device that provides clean air no matter what is in the air.

9. Powered by fluid under pressure.

10. unplanned event that does not result in personal injury but may result in property damage or is worthy to record.

12. a narrow excavation made below the surface of the ground that is generally deeper than it is wide.