

Safety, Health and Nutrition

Across

4. A surface that is resistant to water, chemicals, and other fluids.

11. The process of destroying or reducing organisms to a safe level;

12. Procedures for getting children and staff out of a building

13. To remove dirt, debris, and germs by scrubbing and washing with soap and water.

15. – A product that protects an individual from contracting an infectious disease by stimulating their immune system.

Down

1. A designated area for a child who becomes ill at the facility

2. A desire to eat.

3. The process of administering a vaccine to make an individual protected from contracting an infectious disease.

5. – Disease that can be spread from one person to another

6. Things in the environment that can be identified as dangerous to one's health and welfare.

7. the way that someone or something looks.

8. written procedures; statement of guiding principles

9. To kill germs on surfaces or objects by using chemicals.

10. The total well-being of a person

14. The processes by which a person, animal, or plant takes in and utilizes food substances.