

Sarah Cannon Key Terms Crossword Puzzle

Across

3. A medical research study that tests new ways to prevent, screen, diagnose, or treat a disease. The word "clinical" means related to examining and treating patients.

6. This system is a time keeping system that is used for tracking time spent on clinical trials and sponsor materials.

7. This system is a time keeping system that is used for tracking and submitting expenses and booking travel.

10. This group manages what patients go through on a day to day basis and they have created oncology pathways that help ensure seamless care across the cancer journey for both the patient and providers.

11. What is the acronym for our parent company?

12. In 2007 Sarah Cannon Research Institute launched its _____ research program which specializes in interventional, electrophysiology, heart failure, cardiothoracic surgery, endovascular surgery, peripheral, and structural heart.

13. The location in which we see patients and administer our clinical trials.

14. Remaining free of conflicts helps our organization embrace transparency in our work with customers and patients. What do we complete on an annual basis to combat this issue?

15. This event connects people facing cancer with the help they need close to home. Together with Brad Paisley, Sarah Cannon is bringing this campaign to life in communities across the country, empowering patients and their families to prevent, fight and survive cancer.

Down

1. Sarah Cannon Development Innovations is a global, full-service, oncology-focused _____ (also has acronym) specializing in clinical development services.

2. Sarah Cannon's _____ (also has acronym) offers operational, regulatory and other centralized research support services for sites on industry-sponsored and investigator-initiated trials. With access to a broad patient base, the SMO conducts and supports phase I through III and outcomes-based trials throughout its network of sites.

4. A type of biological therapy that uses targeted drugs to convince the body's immune system to recognize that there is something foreign in the body (cancer) and to attack the cells threatening it.

5. The new Line of Business that HCA has created in order to focus more on Cardiology, Neurology, etc.

8. This system is a time keeping system that is used for tracking regularly worked hours. Non-Exempt colleagues use this system to clock in and out to track their hours for payroll. Manager use this system to approve time and make sure colleagues are paid appropriately.

9. The colleague driven committee that is the voice of the organization.