

Name: _____ Date: _____

Saylor Shull SOWK4400 Gambling Behavioral Addiction Crossword

Across

3. Having fun includes gambling for this type of gambler

6. The gambler who gambles to escape stressful life problems

12. What is something a person would absolutely never bet on?

14. This form of gambling has been shown to be a form of regressive taxation. I

15. What are younger americans more likely to bet on compared to older americans?

16. This type of gambler is always thinking about gambling and obtaining money to gamble

18. This type of gambling can have a fast turnaround creating a stronger relationship

20. Marked cards is a part of what type of gambling?

Down

1. Native American stick game

2. The most obvious repercussion of gambling is

4. Craps is an example of what type of game

5. Gin Rummy, Spades, and Hearts are all examples of

7. A rare type of gambler who is not usually seen as having a gambling addiction

8. Texas Hold'em and Blackjack are examples of

9. what percent of Americans in the US have engaged in gambling at least once according to our book

10. According to our book, this number of people in the U.S. meet the criteria for pathological gambling

11. The gambler who cheats to win

13. The gambler who doesn't experience the problems from the addiction

17. What percent of the population of gambling addicts seek out help?

19. Acronym of the advocacy organization for services and programs that assist individuals and families with problem gambling.